

Viola D. Henderson

November 20, 1929 - November 1, 2014

Viola Deloris Henderson, born Viola Deloris Dunaway on November 20, 1929 to Matilda Dunaway and Fred Barber. Viola was born in Baltimore, Maryland and received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She received her High School Diploma from the Frederick Douglas High School. After a lengthy illness, Viola went home to be with her Lord on November 1, 2014 at the Gilchrist Hospice Center in Towson, MD.

Viola (affectionately known as Sis) worked 16 years in catering for Baida Caterers before becoming a homemaker for her long time sweet heart Charles Monroe Henderson. Viola and Charles joined in marriage on July 9, 1988. The love of her life Charles preceded her in death on January 24, 1998. Viola received Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and was a long time member of the City Temple of Baltimore (Baptist).

Viola's parents and her two brothers William Barnes and Herbert Smith preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memory, her son Edward Brown, Jr., her brother Wendell Smith, two grandchildren Edward III and Nicole (Brown)-Scott. She also leaves to cherish four step-grandchildren Lisa, James, Rodney & Marcia, a host of grand and great-grand children and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other family members and friends. Also included is her Cousin Valaney Martin of Warsaw, Virginia.
