

Viola Hopkins

April 27, 1940 - December 17, 2013

VIOLA HOPKINS, daughter of the late Viola and Sam Kennedy, was born on April 27, 1939 in Chester, South Carolina. She departed this life suddenly on December 17, 2013.

At a very early age she received Christ and was baptized at Mount Zion Baptist Church in Blackstock, South Carolina. She received her education at Russell School in Blackstock, South Carolina.

She married Amos Hopkins and out of this union two loving daughters, Gurlene and Deborah, were born. Sister, as she was known to all except her grandkids (who affectionately called her Ya-Ya), made numerous friends and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew and loved her. She loved playing the lottery, working her puzzlebook, playing cards (500), also going to the casinos and most of all spending time with her grandkids.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Amos Hopkins; two daughters, Gurlene Hopkins-Plater and Deborah Hopkins; two grandchildren, Eugene Plater III

(Samantha), Jeannie Viola Plater; son-in-law, Eugene Plater Sr.; and brother-in-law, William Hopkins.

She was preceded in death by her two brothers, Samuel and Charlie Kennedy; special friends, Denise Bowler, Ella Moore and Runette Taylor; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
