

Viola Kennedy

December 15, 1915 - January 16, 2007

Viola Kennedy, daughter of the late Charlie and Katie Johnson, was born on December 15, 1915 in Chester, South Carolina. She departed this life on January 16, 2007, after a lengthy illness. "Miss" (as she was known by all) received her education in South Carolina. She was a faithful member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church. After the death of her husband she moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1981 to live with her daughter. She married Sam Kennedy, and out of this union three children, Samuel, Viola and Charlie were born. Her husband and both sons preceded her death. Miss made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew and loved her. She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Viola Hopkins; son-in-law, Amos Hopkins; ten grandchildren, Gurlene Hipkins-Plater and Deborah Hopkins of Maryland, Charlie, Roscoe and James Kennedy of Florida, John, Sylvester, Virginia, Laquwan Kennedy and Dessine Brown of South Carolina; nineteen great-grandchildren, two great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends including two special friends, Denise Bowler and Runette Taylor.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow. The Bible helps us to appreciate how Jesus feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus gave way to tears upon learning of the death of his friend Lazarus. This gives us assurance that Jesus cares for us during this time of our grief. Jesus also comforts us with the hope of a resurrection. (see John 5:28,29)##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##

“ Dear family and friends of Viola, I am very sorry to hear about the death of your dead loved one. Death is a very hard thing to go through. The bible tells of a time when death, sickness, and pain will be no more. Rev 21:4###imported-begin###A. Jones###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Even though she lived a long life, it is God's purpose for people to live forever. even though that is not the case at present, the bible shows that whatever Jehovah promises, he always fullfills his word. Isaiah 55:11. In ancient times people lived to be 700,800, and sometimes 900 years, thus showing that God created people to live eternally. One day that will be the case, and as for those who have already died; they live on in God's memory, and one day he will awaken them from the sleep of death. John5:28,29 tells us, "Donot maarvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May those thoughts bring joy to your hearts, and help you to cope with your loss.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
