“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences for your loss. I know at this time you are grieving for your loved one, so I hope the promise of the resurrection brings comfort to your hearts, and gives you the strength to cope. Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life, "He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies will come to life." John 11,25. So Jehovah has given this authority to his son, Jesus to call many from the memorial tombs back to eternal life in a paradise earth that he is creating. John 5,26-29. He promises at 2nd Peter 3:13, "But there are new heavens and a new earth that we are awaiting according to his promise, and in these righteousness is to dwell." May the hope of one day seeing your loved one again bring comfort to your hearts.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ We would like to express our deepest sympathy to Ms. Viola's family and friends. The loss of our dear loved ones is very painful and difficult to bear that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy" but we are assured that that enemy will be "brought to nothing." Also, God's Word encourages us that "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." These are the promises of "God who cannot lie." (1Corinthians 15:26, Daniel 12:2, Titus 1:2) We hope this message comforts your hearts.##imported-begin##The Johnsons##imported-end##
