“ Little did we know that morning that God would call your name. In life we all love you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, for you did not go alone. For part of us went with you on the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories for love is still our guide. And though we can not see you. You are on our side. Our family chain is broken and nothing,nothing seems the same. But as God call on us one by one, the chain will link again. Carroll R.Boyd Jr###imported-begin##Carroll & Rose Boyd###imported-end##

“ Dear family, I offer my deepest condolences. Death is truly heartbreaking, but know that the God of all comfort is watching over you, and will care for you and help you to get through this most difficult time. Please keep this wonderful scripture in mind found at Rev 21,4, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. Jehovah God promises to do away with death forever, and raise the dead back to life. Daniel 12,2 promises: "There are many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." One day Viola will awaken from the sleep of death, and she will live in peaceful and happy conditions. May these scriptural truths comfort you, and help you to cope in the days to come.##imported-begin##R
