“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mrs. Caldwell. John 5:28,29 lovingly tell us- "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes the Bible lovingly informs us of a resurrection. It even tell us that our "enemy death" will be "destroyed."-First Corinthians 15:26 May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful prospect found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To The Family, I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I also want to share the comfort of 2 Corinthians 1:3 where it says, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort." May the true God Jehovah, help you to endure and cope with the loss of your dear love one. My prayers are with your family during this difficult time. One day the enemy "death" will be swallowed up and all it's victims released, Isaiah 25:8.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jordan##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Jones, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
