

Viola Morton

September 4, 1927 - October 4, 2009

Viola Baskerville Morton, daughter of the late Oscar and Mary Baskerville, departed this life on Sunday, October 4, 2009. She was born on September 4, 1927 in Richmond, Virginia and attended Richmond Public Schools. She was preceded in death by her husband, Thomas H. Morton, one daughter, Mary E. Moore, one sister, Bernice Whitaker and one great grandson, Johmar Scales. Viola was a loving mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin and friend who greeted everyone with a smile, and every person she met she treated the same. Viola loved the Lord and if you spent any time around her, she would tell you how much she loved the Lord, that "He is alive and I know He changed me!" During the last few years, she spent much of her time enjoying the gospel tapes. Because of her failing health, she was unable to regularly attend her church, Friendship Memorial Baptist Church, but faithfully listened to her church CD's. Her other true joy came from visiting with her family, especially her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She once said "when all my grandkids are around me, it is like being surrounded by sweet smelling roses," and then she would smile. She has touched our lives in a very special way that words cannot describe, and she will be greatly missed. Viola leaves to cherish her memory, one son Alton Baskerville (Phyllis), one daughter, Rose Marie Baskerville, one brother, Henry Baskerville (Yvonne), six grandchildren, Latonja Brooks, Edward E. Baskerville, Kimberly Scales, Ashanti Okay (Douglas), John Moore, Jr., Faith Baskerville; three great grandchildren, Earl M. Robinson, Jori R.

Brooks and Anna C. Okay and a host of nieces,nephews,other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Viola Morton

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the family you are in our prayers and we love you##imported-begin##Nettie & Clarence Jones##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM