

Viola Victoria Pulliam

January 6, 1923 - April 23, 2011

Viola Victoria A. Pulliam, age 88, went to be with the Lord on Saturday, April 23, 2011. She was born January 6, 1923 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to the late Jerry and Dorothy M. Anderson. She was preceded in death by David J. Pulliam. "Vi" as she known to her family and friends later moved to Richmond to live with her mother who had relocated here. Having only received a fourth grade education, she was constantly reading the newspaper following the political and golf scenes

Viola gave her life to Christ at an early age. She had a passion for gardening, as evidenced by her green thumb. She also had a passion for golf, even though she never picked up a golf club. When her sister's health permitted, they were a weekly item on Harrison Fishing Pier; fishing was a passion she often talked about. She worked for years as a cosmetologist at Roane's Beauty Salon with her sister Florence. After leaving there, she became a private duty nurse for many years. When she retired, she was a caregiver for her adopted family, the Butlers; she was with them until her health prevented her from being with them.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her memory, her devoted daughters, Corliss Mealy, DeLinda Hunter (Alonzo), Vanessa Pulliam and Cynthia Butler (Harris); one sister, Nancy Brown; one brother-in-law, Felix Samuels; nine grandchildren; three great grandchildren; the beloved dogs, especially Rico; a host of relatives and friends.

“ To the family:

I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to your family during this painful time. I wanted to share some comforting scriptures with you during this difficult time. Yes it's very painful when we lose a loved one to death so wouldn't it be great to see, talk, touch, hug, smile and cry together again. Well, life which is a gift from God did not purpose for our lives to be cut short for any reason no matter how young or old that is why he made a provision by means of his son Jesus that we may have life again. (John 5:28-29). That is truly a gift from God and one day in our life time the righteous will possess the earth and reside upon it forever (Ps 37:29) in an abundance of peace. (Ps 37:11) Yes it is extremely encouraging to know that in due time Jehovah God has promised by means of his son, Jesus Christ that the dead will awaken (Dan 12:2 )and death will be no more, no more suffering and pain according to Revelation 21:4, not to mention no one ever having to say they are sick.(Is 33:24). May Jehovah God embrace you all in His love
