

Viola T. Reynolds

July 4, 1936 - June 2, 2017

Viola Theresa Reynolds departed this life unexpectedly on Friday, June 2, 2017 in Baltimore, Maryland just one month shy of her 81st birthday.

Born on July 4, 1936 to Evelyn Myrtle Henson (Chew) and George Milton Henson in Baltimore, Maryland, Viola is the oldest of eight children. She received her education in Baltimore City Public School System and her high school diploma with honors from Frederick Douglass High School. She was an active member at St. Paul M. P. Church during her adolescence. Her career consisted of various domestic related services. Upon retirement, she did clerical work in her place of residency towards the latter part of her life at Terrance Gardens Co-Op Apartments.

Viola loved her family dearly and took much pride and pleasure in planning and participating in family activities. One of her favorite hobbies was roller skating. She had a contagious, bashful smile and a generous demeanor. She will be remembered as a loyal friend and a loving and devoted daughter, mother, grandmother, sister, and aunt.

She was married to the late Richard A. Reynolds and is survived by: her children, Cynthia Sorrell, Ronald Reynolds, Richard Reynolds, Randy Reynolds; nephew, Welford Canady; daughter-in-laws, Linda Reynolds, Dana Reynolds, Annie Reynolds, Robin Canady; her brother, Leon "Pete" Henson; her sisters Marlene Washington, Lillian Richardson, Sylvia Fleet; her aunt, Lucille Anderson; grandchildren, Zakiya Kelvin, Alysha, Kristen, Ronicesha, Michelle; great grandchildren, several special nieces and nephews; a host of cousins, loved ones, and friends.

“ Aunt Vi will never be forgotten. She was quiet, sweet and humble. She never screamed, or disrespected anyone (Okay, maybe she screamed that one time at Aunt Marlene, butttt rightfully so, lol). One recent memory I will always have of her is when she rode a coach bus for TEN hours to Michigan and TEN hours back to Baltimore to come be with me at my wedding. I love you Aunt Vi, rest in peace!

*Your Niece,
Blair*
