

Viola E. Wallace

January 23, 1940 - May 9, 2011

VIOLA E. WALLACE, daughter of the late Mary Ellen Banks and James Jones was born on January 23, 1940 in Baltimore, Maryland.

“Ann”, as she was affectionately known by family and friends, was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools System. She received Christ at an early age. She attended Little Ark Baptist Church until her failing Health.

She worked at Maryland General Hospital in the Laundry Department until she relocated to Salisbury, Maryland. Upon returning to Baltimore she reunited with her childhood sweetheart, Bernard Travers and from this union had one daughter, Deborah Ferguson.

Bernard Travers has always been the love of her life and has been a loyal and faithful companion, never faltering with her care.

On Monday, May 9, 2011 early morning God saw Ann was getting tired and whispered in her ear and said, “Come With Me”. With tears in her eyes, she gladly took His hand and was honored to enter into the gates of Heaven, where she has no more worries or pain.

Ann leaves to cherish her memory: her life-long companion, Bernard Travers; daughter, Deborah Ferguson (Chester) ; brother-in-law, Leon C.

Travers(Dorothy) ; aunt, Viola Wallace; best friend, Brenda Wells; goddaughter, Pamela Brown, other relatives and friends.

“ I know you don't know me, but I saw Ms. Wallace's obituary; I wanted to send you my condolences. As humans, we grieve over the death of a loved one; that's normal, because we know Jesus gave way to tears (John 11:35) after the death of his close friend Lazarus. He demonstrated what resurrection will mean for mankind; in John 11:11, 14-44, "Jesus said to his disciples, 'Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep.' Luke 23:43 provides us the hope for paradise here on earth, because Jesus stated, "Truly I tell you today, YOU will be with me in Paradise." Jesus statement meant that "All the earth will be transformed back into a paradise under the rule of Christ as King! 1 Thessalonians 4:13 Paul instructs us to not be ignorant concerning those who are sleep (in death); This hope Paul mentions is the hope for the restored Paradise on Earth, as Jehovah God had originally created for all of mankind to enjoy.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. May family and friends be comforted by the wonderful promise at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."
