

Violet Hermeaner Booth

June 2, 1950 - April 11, 2026

Violet Hermeaner Booth was born on June 2, 1950, in Lunenburg County, VA, to the late Erving Booth and Dorothy Booth. She was preceded in death by her sisters, Ella B. Booth and Gussie M. Booth, and brothers, Earnest L. Booth and Larry L. Booth.

Violet received her formal education at Central of Lunenburg High School in Victoria, VA. She furthered her education at a small vocational school in Crewe, VA, where she studied to become a nurse's aide.

Violet accepted Christ at an early age and became a member of Macedonia Baptist Church. She worked as a nurse's aide in various settings, including hospitals, group homes, and private homes. She was also a member of the Red Hat Society, specifically the Innovage PACE chapter, a program providing care and support for seniors, until her health limited her participation.

Violet was a quiet, humble woman who was well known as a dependable caregiver for her family and clients. She often went above and beyond to ensure others were well cared for. Clients' families oftentimes refused other home care aids because they knew no one could compare to her. In her spare time, Violet enjoyed activities like completing word puzzles and games, and "working her numbers" to determine upcoming lottery numbers, though she rarely played them.

Violet leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters, Tomeeker (Donnell) Gary of New Kent, VA, and Carla Booth of Richmond, VA; two granddaughters, Jakayla Gary of New Kent, VA, and Miracle-Nicole Booth of Richmond, VA; two sisters, Fenora Booth of Crewe, VA, and Glorious (William Sr.) Foster of Crewe, VA; three brothers, Russell (Floniaphine) Booth of Meherrin, VA, Robert Booth of Richmond, VA, and Irving (Darlene) Booth of Marieta, GA; and special friends, Virginia Lewis and Calvin Matthews, both of Richmond, VA; and a host of other relatives and friends.
