“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. I know the sadness associated with the loss of one you love and I know the comfort offered by God in his Word the Bible. Please read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 which talks about the hope of a resurrection for the righteous and the unrighteous. After reading these two scriptures please turn your attention to John 3:16 and Matthew 20:28. These two scriptures tell us why we can put faith in the promise of a resurrection. May these provide you with comfort and hope as they have for me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. Knowing how painful it can be to lose a loved one. It is very comforting to know how Jesus feels about our loved ones. He demonstrated this with the resurrection of his friend Lazarus at John 11:38-44. (Please take the time to read this account). May you be comfort and strengthen during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences at this most difficult time. Very soon God is going to bring about a wonderful change on this earth, and sickness and death will be no more. To some it sounds too good to be true; a world without pain, but this is Jehovah's promises to us; a promises from the God of all truth who never fails to carry out his word. Heb 6:18, Isaiah 55:10,11. According to Daniel 12,2 there will be many of those who are asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up. They will wake up to paradise conditions, because 2nd peter 3:13 promises, "But there are new heavens and a new earth in which we are awaiting, and in these righteousness is to dwell." Psalm 37:10,11 speak of the meek ones inheriting the earth, and it says that they will have an exquisite delight in the abundance of peace. Jesus has been given all authority to ressurect the dead, because of his faithful course his father entrusted him with this authority. JOhn 5:26-29 says, "For just as the father has life in himself, so he has granted also to the Son to have life in himself. "And he has given him authority to do judging,because son of man he is. "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life." One day your Violet will open her eyes again. May you be comforted and strengthened by his wonderful promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
