

Violet G. Walker

February 28, 1931 - December 31, 2014

Violet G. Walker, daughter of the late Peter and Annie Smith, was born on February 28, 1931 in Boardman North Carolina. She departed this life suddenly on December 31, 2014.

She received her education at Mt. Olive H.S. in Whiteville NC. Violet was affectionally known as “Moma” and “Baby Ray” by her many family members and friends. Moma accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Horace Grove Baptist Church in Boardman NC.

In 1951, she married the love of her life, the late James T. Walker and out of this union four children were born. In 1959 the family relocated to Baltimore MD.

She enjoyed cooking, listening to gospel music, playing cards, completing crossword-search puzzles, watching children playing outside and the Ravens games on TV.

Her favorite holiday was Christmas; she loved to ride through the various neighborhoods and look at the Christmas lights. However, Moma’s greatest thrill was sitting on her front porch sharing laughs with everyone who stopped by, even strangers. She was also content sitting all by herself.

Moma worked for over 40 years as a seamstress for Acme Pad Company. She was a devoted member of the Tabernacle of the Lord congregation where she served as a deaconess and a member of the usher ministry.

She leaves to cherish her memories:

Two sons, Jerry Walker Sr. (Mary); James Walker (Cindy); two daughters

Joyce Madison (Andrew); Violetta Ferguson (Harrison); one sister-in-law
Rebecca Smith of Boardman NC. Seven grandchildren; Edwin Sr.; Shantae'; Dontae; Nicole; Jerry Jr.; Lil Mary and Adrian.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family of Violet G. Walker. Ms. Walker looks so familiar. A word of comfort in your time of sorrow can be found at Isaiah 25:8 "He will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Christ Jesus died so that we can live again.
