

Virgie V. Smith

April 18, 1918 - August 26, 2010

VIRGIE SMITH was born on April 18, 1918 in Youngsville, North Carolina. She was the daughter of the late Minnie Vincent and the late Joseph Jones of Virginia .

Virgie Smith, affectionately known as Virginia, was called to glory on August 26, 2010, after years of remarkable good health, considering her heart problems.

The late Harvey Smith married her and they had five children together, the late Horace Smith, the late Garfield Smith, Minnie Ferguson- Bey, Nora Moore and Alan Smith.

In her younger years, Virgie(Virginia) worked cleaning houses with her mother. For the most part, she was a housewife, a mother and a good cook in Baltimore, Maryland. She taught her children and her children's children the ways of the lord by bringing them, like her mother before her, to Bishop Showell's Church, First Apostolic Faith Church.

Virgie Smith leaves behind a large number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. There are also out of state relatives from down south: the Smith, the Taylor's and other that have crossed our family bloodlines.
