

Virgil M. Dixon

July 6, 1954 - November 10, 2009

VIRGIL DIXON, JR., son of the late Virgil Dixon Sr. and Elizabeth Pinnick Dixon, was born on July 6, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a very short illness, God called him home on Tuesday, November 10, 2009. As a child, he was baptized at the family's church, First Baptist, by the Reverend Vernon T. Williams. Educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, Virgil learned that he had a talent for working with his hand. He took pride in his work, which could range from house painting to home improvement, or large appliance installations. He was his own contractor when his home needed flooring or roof repairs. Virgil was a generous friend. He never hesitated to offer help when he could, even to companions who needed shelter. He will be greatly missed by many. Preceded in passing by his parents, one sister and one brother, Virgil leaves to mourn his loss a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and a very special friend.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection (John 5:28,29). What a wonderful day that will be!###imported-begin###Kevin Jackson###imported-end###
