“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Virginia Barnes. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ Don't think of her as gone away her journeys just begun. life holds so many facets, this earth is only one. Just think of her as resting from the sorrow and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort, where there are no days and years. Think of how she must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away. And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched, for nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much. I'm sorry I couldn't be with you during your time of loss. Read 1Thessalonians 4:17-18 may this scripture give you strength during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Amla Charleston-Corpening##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts 24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ To Eddie and Family, Remember the Bible teaches us; To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Allow GOD to be your bridge over troubled waters, seek him in your darkest hour for strength and comfort and know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.
