“ My deepest condolences to the family and everyone she touched. Gennie was one of my oldest and dearest friends. She was a beautiful people with a very strong and respected presence. Always compassionate and ready stand for what was right. One of my most fond memories is when I was about three, she brought a three book collection, one of the books was "Chicken soup with rice". I will never forget that. I pray that God grant you speedy entrance into the kingdom of heaven, and by the way tell my sister Bernie I said hi, and I love both of you.
