

Virginia A. Bryson

February 25, 1915 - April 13, 2011

VIRGINIA BRYSON, known as “Gege”, was born on February 25, 1925 in Gaylax, Virginia to Minnie Roberson and George Bryson. She had three brothers and three sisters. She raised all of her siblings after their mother died, at eight years old.

She attended Deanza College, where she graduated as a Nursing Assistant, from which she retired. After retirement she spent the rest of her life devoted to her children and grandchildren. She married Calvin Thomas, Sr. And out of this union Calvin Thomas, Jr. was born.

She enjoyed going on trips to Atlantic City. She was also known for dipping snuff and eating Tootise Rolls. She also enjoyed knitting and sewing. She spent thirty years at the Basillica Place where she resided until her death.

She leaves behind to mourn; two children, Linda McFadden and Calvin Thomas, Jr. (son, Harold Wayne Bryson preceded her in death); six grandchildren, Maureen, Doreen, Shante, George, Gabbie and Danielle; twelve great-grandchildren, Shamika, Moriah, Keyonte, Isaac, laevell, Marshawn, Marquese, “Nana” Fire, Jade, Sara and Buster; sister, Lillian Slater; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
