We celebrate today the life and accomplishment of Virginia L. Cook who departed this world much too soon. Virginia was an outgoing person, full of life and caring for others. Her compassion was shown in the treatment of others, a willingness to listen, a willingness to help and provide support when needed.

Virginia Lee Cook, daughter of Mary Hardy and the late Freddie Weaver, was born on October 6, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland. She entered into eternal rest on August 31, 2019 and will truly be missed.

Always wanting to set a great example for her daughter, she obtained both her Bachelors and Master Degree in Human Resource Management from Strayer University in Chesapeake, Virginia.

Ginny married her childhood sweetheart Samuel in July 31, 1989, and out of this union, Samantha was born on September 11, 2001. Ginny loved being a mother and military wife and she treasured her family.

Ginny was a member of the Basilica of Saint Mary of the Immaculate Conception in Norfolk, Virginia. Community involvement was important to Ginny. She was selected to serve on the City of Chesapeake Storm Water
