She was a cheerful giver and accomplished a mission of her own, as a Missionary, the pleasure was all hers to help and care for the sick. Virginia loved to travel and she enjoyed the outdoor scenery, such as flowers and gardens. She will be greatly missed and long remembered. We were blessed to have such a caring person in our lives. She leaves to cherish her precious memories: a brother, John Lewis; a special friend, O'Neil Smith; a devoted friend, Otelia Williams; a niece, and aunt; and many cousins and friends.
