

Virginia Hankins

August 29, 1936 - May 9, 2005

Suddenly on Monday, May 9, 2005, God called His servant VIRGINIA MAE HANKINS home from labor to reward. Born August 29, 1936, she was one of ten children born to the late Mary Jane Berry in Petersburg, Virginia. After moving to Baltimore, Maryland Virginia was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from Douglass High School. Virginia accepted Christ at an early age, later joining New Psalmist Baptist Church. Virginia was married to the late Ernest Delaney Hankins, Sr. from this union they had four children, Ernest, Jr., Audrey, Vanessa, and Andre, who preceded her in death. Virginia loved to travel often taking spontaneous road trips with her friends and daughters. Virginia and her friend Charles also enjoyed taking cruises and traveling across the United States. Virginia had a special knack for cooking and preparing special treats for her family and friends. As a para-professional, Virginia worked 30 years for the Baltimore City Department of Education. Her love of children made this career a wonderful experience. Virginia also cared for foster children whom she adored. Virginia was a loving, devoted, strong, classy woman who enjoyed life and family. On Mother's Day, the day before departing this earthly home, Virginia spent a great happy day with her daughters and great granddaughter. To honor and cherish her memory, Virginia leaves: her daughters, Audrey Jackson and Vanessa Hankins; son, Ernest Hankins, Jr.; sisters, Thelma Tate, Pauline Williams, and Doris Williams; brothers, Robert C. Berry, James Williams and Harry Williams; grandchildren, Felisa Osavio, Latarsha Turmon, Terry Turmon, Derran Hankins and Brandon Hankins; and a host of great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and friends. Virginia also leaves to cherish her memory Charles Johnson, a devoted and special person in her life.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. It is my hope that you will be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Sorry to hear about your loss. Please accept my condolences. Daniel chapter 12, verse 2 says- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground od dust who will wake up." May you receive much comfort from that divinely inspired promise.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
