

Virginia I. Harris

April 25, 1926 - February 3, 2011

VIRGINIA I. HARRIS, daughter of the late Hope Vaughn, was born on April 25, 1926 in Roseland, Virginia. She departed this life on February 3, 2011 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in the Virginia School System. She married William Henry Harris, Jr. in 1948 and from this union three children were born.

She was employed as an Elevator Operator and Mail Order Clerk at Johns Hopkins Hospital, from which she retired. While at Johns Hopkins Hospital, she received the Baker King Award. This is one of the highest awards given to an employee.

Virginia was a member of First United Baptist Church where Rev. Saunders was the pastor.

Virginia leaves to cherish her memory: her three children, William Joel Harris, David W. Harris and Rosalind Ervin; daughter-in-law, Isis Harris; eleven grandchildren, Carl Linard Harris, Joiletta "Erica" Harris, Emanuel Harris, Michelle Ervin, Renee Ervin, Raymond Ervin, Lakira Harris, Tara Harris, Ashley Harris, Jessica Harris and Jennifer Harris; twenty great-grandchildren; three brothers; seven sisters; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Ms. Virginia Harris====I'm really going to miss my aunt, I'll miss coming to see her when I'm in Baltimore. Whom i know for 60 years and she was devoted person with a beautiful smile which every one could see. My aunt was glad to see me when I was in Baltimore, she away wanted to fix me food, and she was a great cook.. I wanted her to know I Love her as much as she loved me.. .
