

Virginia B. Jennings

February 21, 1925 - May 29, 2017

VIRGINIA DARE JENNINGS, daughter to the late Robert and Mary Boyd, was born on February 21, 1925, in Waterview, Virginia. She was the youngest of eight children.

On May 29, 2017, our Heavenly Father called her to rest. She peacefully slipped away into His loving arms.

She attended school in the public school system of Laneview, Virginia and later graduated from the Middlesex Training School in Saluda, Virginia.

At any early age, Virginia joined the Union Shiloh Baptist Church in Laneview, Virginia which she still enjoyed and looked forward to attending up until her death. Upon moving to Baltimore, she joined Concord Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. J.M. Raynor. She always had a love for singing which she did on the Senior Choir II and with the Willing Workers Club of Laneview, Virginia.

In June of 1957, she united in holy matrimony with Thomas Jennings of Farmville, Virginia. From this union, one child, Brenda, was born. They welcomed six other daughters: Linda, Novella, Mary, Joan, Kim, and Terri.

Virginia had a humbling spirit and touched the hearts of many she came in contact with. One of the joys of her life was going back to her roots in Waterview, Virginia and sharing that experience with family and friends. She loved to tell stories of growing up there. She loved to bake, make dandelion wine, preserves and quilts. She had a sense of humor and was our family practical joker. Her greatest joy was family, especially the grand-children and great grand-children. Some of home took her for their personal play mate.

Virginia is survived by daughters, Brenda Jennings, Linda Wilson, Novella Gardner, Mary Brown, Joan Smith and Terri Lawson; two devoted grandsons, Gregory Booker and Raynard Booker; twenty additional grandchildren; thirty-seven great grand-children; one great-great-grandchild; one niece, Helen Smith; two special cousins, Lillian McQuire and Howard Hill; a nephew who was like a son to her, Earl Lane; a special friend of the family, LeKeaver Brown and host of other relatives and friends.
