

Virginia M. Freeman

March 17, 1922 - March 11, 2005

Virginia Mae Freeman, the daughter of the late Fannie Bell and Homer Smith, was born on March 17, 1922 in Lynchburg, Virginia. After her illness her Heavenly Father decided to take her home on March 11, 2005. At an early age, Virginia received salvation and was baptized at Southern Baptist Church, located at Bond and Preston Streets. She received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. She married the late Wilburt Freeman Sr., and from this union one son was born. Prior to her illness, Virginia spent countless hours giving love to her family and friends. She was affectionately known to many. In her spare time she loved to sew and spend time with family, tell stories of her younger days and loved going to church. She leaves to mourn: her loving son, Wilburt Freeman Jr.; daughter-in-law, Marjorie Freeman; three grandsons, Roderick, Wilburt III and Andre; great-granddaughter, Laquittia; sister-in-law, Mary Saunders; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ To The Family: Please accept my sincere condolences. In difficult times such as this, it is comforting to know that "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves" Psalm 34:18. May you draw comfort from these words.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends , I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 5:28,29 where Jesus says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor our cry or pain anymore. He say's death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he say's, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
