

Virginia M. Williams

April 23, 1923 - February 7, 2003

Virginia Mae Williams, daughter of the late Rebecca Briggs and the late Charlie Williams, was born on April 23, 1923 in Petersburg, Virginia. She departed this life on February 7, 2003 after a lengthy illness. As a young child she came to Baltimore and received her education and went on to work in various restaurants. Her last place of employment was St. Agnes Hospital. Virginia made numerous friends wherever she went. She was the neighborhood nurse of the 1000 block of Woodyear Street. She was always a true friend and very devoted woman. She leaves to mourn: one daughter, Margo Stewart; four grandchildren, Ronnie, Mickey, Brandon and Sherry Stewart; one goddaughter, Mary Morris-Duppins; and a host of other relatives and friends including special dear friend, Jesse Bishop.
