

Virginia Mae Jackson

June 5, 1928 - August 11, 2003

Virginia M. Jackson, daughter of the late John Chapple and Nettie O'Brien, was born on June 5, 1928 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on August 11, 2003 after a short illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She worked at various jobs until February 2000. She married Maurice A. Jackson Sr. on May 4, 1955, and out of that union six children were born. She renewed her faith in the lord in 2003 by her grandson Aaron Webb. She loved watching the old westerns on her satellite television. She would always greet her neighbors and friends with a smile, she was a generous woman always coming to the aid of her family. She leaves to mourn: her children, Glenn, Linda, Patricia and Bernadette (two children, Maurice Jr. and Laverne preceded her in death); one brother, Purnell; seventeen grandchildren, nineteen great-grandchildren, one daughter-in-law, one son-in-law, two sisters-in-law, three brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
