

Virginia L Minor

July 12, 1925 - January 5, 2012

VIRGINIA L. MINOR, daughter of the late Clarence and Frances Morris, was born on July 12, 1925 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on January 5, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

Virginia was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She was a devoted mother and housewife and a lifelong member of the Mt. Carmel Baptist Church.

Virginia met and married the former Frank Cook. This union would last over fifty years. Out of this union were born seventeen children, fifty grandchildren, forty-nine great grandchildren; and six great-great-grandchildren.

Virginia was a very compassionate and loving person who touched the hearts of everyone she came in contact with. She was strong, energetic and very spontaneous. Her door was open to all as she developed lifelong friendships with both young and old. These friendships would follow her over the years and wherever she went.

She leaves to mourn: daughters, Carol, Diana, Beverly, Loistine, Joyce and Janice; sons, Ronald, Jeffrey, Keith, Kenneth and Glen; her children, Patricia, Sheila, Alvin, Robert, Clarence and Lamont preceded her in death. She also leaves fifty grandchildren, forty-nine great-grandchildren, six great-grandchildren;and a host of nieces, nephews, and a special friend, Audrey Williams.

“ Ms. Virginia always made me feel welcome and loved no matter the situation. I will miss our kitchen or dinning room chats when I would come to Baltimore. She was not a complainer and always had a kind word and a plate full of something good to eat or we were on our way to "market". Thanks Granny for accepting me no matter what. You will forever be in my memory and live on in my heart.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
