

Virginia R. Johnson

July 2, 1918 - July 4, 2006

VIRGINIA REBECCA JOHNSON, daughter of the late William and Dora Robinson, was born on July 2, 1918 in Baltimore, Maryland. Affectionately known as Jenny by family and friends, she departed this life on July 4, 2006. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Jenny was the second oldest of six children and often helped to care for her younger brothers and sister. On February 23, 1944, she married John Johnson and out of this union three children were born, Barbara, John Jr. and Sharon. They were married fifty-four years, until his sudden passing in April of 1998. Jenny was a devoted wife and mother. She loved being a grandmother and was overjoyed when her great-grandchildren were born. She loved all types of music, but especially jazz. She would often say, "There is no sweeter sound than the sound of a saxophone." The family would like to say a special thank you to Mrs. Johnson's caregivers, Den'a Watts and Gail Williams. Your compassion and care will always be remembered. Jenny leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters, Barbara Ann Lamback and Sharon Johnson-Davis; son, John Williams Johnson Jr.; son-in-law, Samuel Davis; daughter-in-law, Donna Fisher; grandchildren, Gary Lamback Jr. and wife Joyce Lamback, Nakeya Johnson, Gerald Gray and Alexis Johnson; great-grandchildren, Sharday, Brittany and Briana Lamback, Sharda Gray and Dorian Cox; and one nephew, Charles Anthony Noakes.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
