

Virginia Reaves

December 16, 1937 - December 20, 2001

Virginia Reaves, daughter of the late Earnest & Mamie Brandford was born December 16, 1937, in Merri-Weather Gay, Georgia. Following a lengthy illness at John Hopkins Hospital, she departed this life on Thursday, December 20, 2001. Virginia received her education in Merri-Weather Gay, Georgia. She met and married the late Charlie Reaves. They later moved to Baltimore, Maryland. From this union five children were born and raised... She attended Southern Baptist church where she gave her life to Christ. She served on the nurses unit at Southern Baptist Church. Having accomplished many wonderful things throughout her life, Virginia was known for always willing to lend a helping hand to those in need. She will surely be missed by all that knew and loved her. Virginia leaves to cherish her loving memories: three daughters, Cheryl, Elaine and Jacqueline; two sons, Kerry and Earnest, one sister Lucille Smith of Atlanta, GA; one half-sister, Pam Patton of Atlanta, GA; one aunt, Emma Russell of Atlanta, GA.; one uncle, Clark Blunt of Atlanta, GA.; two sisters-in-law; Sarah and Cora Brandford of GA.; two sons-in-law, Malcolm and Russell; one daughter-in-law, Priscilla; seventeen grandchildren; six children she helped raise, Elaine, Yvonne, Joyce Christine, Annabell and Henry, Jr.; one godchild, Elizabeth Jones; one dedicated and faithful "sister" Frankie De Witt, nieces, nephews and a host of relatives and friends.
