“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 ) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Ms. Virtlee's family and friends. The loss of our dear loved ones can be very painful and difficult to bear that's why the Bible calls death our "enemy." But please be assured that God is going to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes according to 1Corinthians 15:26. Then many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up-Daniel 12:2. I hope you continue to find comfort and strength through a study of God's Word, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I wish to extend my condolences to the family of Mrs Livingston at this most difficult time. Noone wants their loved ones to die, and because of the great pain and grief it causes us; Jehovah has purposed to do away with all sickness and death forever. 1st Cor 15:26 promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Death is truly our worst enemy, and it is so heartwarming to know that Jehovah intends to eliminate it out of our lives for good. That means that one day we will never have to worry about our loved ones dying anymore, and we ourselves will not have death hanging over our own heads like a dark cloud. One day all who have died will be ressurected back to life in paradise conditions. Acts 24:15 says that there will be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." And 2nd Peter 3:13 says that there will be a new earth for all obedient people who will live in righteous conditions. May Jehovah God in his great love keep comforting you, and giving you the strength to go on.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
