

Vivian Elizabeth Bishop

August 20, 1941 - October 22, 2010

A change of address...

Mrs. Vivian Elizabeth Dandridge Bishop transitioned to her eternal home in heaven on October 22, 2010 at Retreat Hospital in Richmond, VA. She was preceded in death by her parents John Dandridge and Rosetta Burmingham.

Born on August 20, 1941, in Richmond, VA., she lived in the New York & New Jersey areas before settling back home in Richmond. Vivian's christian experience started early at Mt. Carmel Baptist Church and through the Baptist Training Union at Six Mount Zion Baptist Church in Richmond, VA. She shared her faith with many and no matter her physical challenges; she would lift her hand and say "Hallelujah! Thank You, Jesus!". Vivian enjoyed traveling, cooking and sharing time with family and friends. Shopping was one of her passions and a sassy hat was her delight.

Mrs. Bishop was educated at Morris High School, in Bronx, NY and Camden County College in Camden, NJ., where she recieved her degree in Early Childhood. Her love and care for children was evidence by the many lives she touched with her jovial personality. Upon her return to Richmond, VA., she served at Community Church of God in Christ and Kingdom Harvest International Ministries. You could find her ministering in evangelism teams, children areas, praying mothers, outreach and pastoral aide. During the time of health challenges,fellowship came to her through Amazing Grace Fellowship and Mt. Gilead Int'l Ministries.

In New York,on March 21,1959,Vivian was married to Lloyd Earl Bishop and of that union Monica and Tonya Bishop was born. Vivian's love and commitment to her husband for over a half century was one of her greatest testimonies and witness to the women she mentored.

Left to cherish her memory are husband;Earl Bishop,daughters;Monica D. Jones(Michael S.) and Tanya R. Bishop, grandchildren;Shrnae` H. Bishop and Galatiah A. Davis,a great grandchild;Harmonie A.M.
