

Vivian Constance Clay

October 18, 1952 - April 9, 2021

Vivian Constance Clay was born to the late Mary Elizabeth Clay - Craig and Charles Albert Clay on October 18, 2052. She transitioned home to be with the Lord on April 9, 2021 after a lengthy illness. She attended the Baltimore City Public Schools. She worked at Lake Montebello nursing home in housekeeping and after retiring from there she retired from Red Lobster Restaurant as a prep cook after many years of service.

Vivian loved being around her family and friends, especially the kids in the family. She would often have her nieces and nephews at her house during holiday breaks from school, taking them to the movies. She loved playing cards and hanging out with her friends and listening to her music (oldies but goodies) as she would call them. Vivian was known for being very outspoken; you would never know what was going to come out of her mouth. She told it like it was and it didn't matter whose child you were.

Vivian was preceded in death by her grandmother Frances Johnson; mother Mary E. Clay - Craig; father Charles Albert Clay; brothers Charles Albert Clay, Donald Stanley Clay, Calvin Thomas Clay; sisters Gwendolyn Clay, Francine Agnes Williams; nephew Davon MaCargo; three uncles James Johnson, James Clay, Robert Clay; three aunts Dorothy Johnson - Clanston, Viola Clay, and Willie Mae Clay.

Vivian leaves to cherish her memory son Anthony Hall (Teefera); daughter Catina Montgomery; grand daughter Jourdin Hall; sisters Charlene Clay - Alston (Larry), Ernestine Hill; brothers Bernard Clay (Della), Robert Clay, Walter Robinson, Alfred Craig (William); cousins who were like brothers & sisters and a host of other relatives and friends.
