July 4, 1942 - December 18, 2001

VIVIAN "HELENA" KEARNEY ALSTON was the daughter of the late Samuel and Jessie Kearney and the wife of the late William J. Alston, Sr.. Helena was born on July 4, 1942 in Warren County, North Carolina. She departed this life on December 18, 2001 after a lengthy illness. She became a member of the Odell Baptist Church during her early life and was educated in the public schools of Warren County, North Carolina. Helena made numerous wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was a loving mother and a devoted friend. She came to Baltimore in 1969, where worked as a nursing assistant at Bayview Medical Center. Left to cherish her memory are: her fiancé, Ralph J. Noble Sr.; four daughters, Beverly Cummings, Leather Johnson, Sandra Dillard and Pamela Alston; two sons, Kenneth Alston and William J. Alston Jr.; five sisters, Lilliae Mae Kearney, Pearl Alice Gibbs, Mary Weaver, Elizabeth Kearney and Tracey Kearney; five brothers, Martin Kearney, Joe Kearney, Burnett Kearney, Perry Lee Kearney and Duke Kearney; twelve grandchildren; one great grandchild, and a host of nieces, nephews, in-laws and friends. My heart is filled with sorrow and mind is at peace For the angel who is my mother has left me to be. Although, I understand life my soul can't comprehend, But my spirit can only appreciate the time that we spend. As for you Mother, I know you have no pain and you are free To live your life as you did once before. So, don't worry about me... I will always have your memories forever more. Love always and forever, Pam
