

Vivian L. Hester

June 12, 1941 - March 6, 2002

Vivian Lillian Cheese Hester, devoted wife, mother, grandmother and daughter, was born on December 21, 1941 to Ethel Tyler and the late Joseph Tyler. She was the oldest of five children (four brothers, Joseph, Kevin, Louis and Ronald, all of whom are deceased). She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Later she attended Baltimore City College and received a certificate as a medical assistant to the elderly. She had a desire to take care of people in need and was very opened hearted. Her religious training started when she was a young child at St. Paul Church of God in Christ Jesus, Apostolic. She attended Sunday School and was baptized at the age of 12 on July 1, 1954. Vivian was a supporter of the church until her death. Vivian was married to the late Jimmy Leroy Cheese. She later was wed to Clyde J. Hester in 1980. Vivian enjoyed working with senior citizens. She made numerous friends wherever she went. She was a great person to everyone she met. She devoted her life to her family and friends. She will be missed dearly. Vivian's family was important to her especially her grandchildren. She made all kinds of sacrifices for them. Whatever she had, she was willing to share with them. Suddenly on Wednesday evening death claimed her. She leaves to cherish her memory: a loving husband, Clyde Hester; three children, Stacy, Jennifer, Janel; three stepchildren, Antoinette, Joseph, and Clyde, Jr.; twelve grandchildren, Dominique, LaToya, Lindsey, Raven, Asia, Sam, Kai, Jade, Darius, Joseph Jr., and Shannon; her loving mother, Ethel Tyler; one sister-in-law, June Tyler; one son-in-law, Timothy Marks; four nephews and a host of other relatives and friends. A precious one of us gone, A voice we loved is stilled A place is vacant in our hearts, That never will be filled. Lovingly Submitted, The Family
