

Vivian Seward

April 21, 1945 - March 13, 2010

Vivian Seward was born on April 21, 1945, in Baltimore, MD to the late Evelyn and James Higgs. At a young age, Vivian and her siblings went to live with their aunt and uncle Mamie and David Alston after the death of their parents who continued raising them. After a brief stay at Gilchrist Hospice Center, and a long history of illnesses, Vivian departed this life on March 13, 2010 to be with the Lord. Vivian received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System where she graduated from Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School. After receiving her high school diploma, she attended Cortez Peters Business School where she received her degree in business. She was employed with Social Security Administration for many years. It is during that time that she met and married Jimmy Seward. She remains loving and devoted wife until she departed us during the last past week. Vivian had a kind and generous heart. She loved cooking for others and Keen sense for fashion amazed us all. Vivian loved children and she treated them all like they were her own. We would never be surprised to come home to a house full of company of all ages that she was cooking for and entertaining just to keep smiles on their faces. She leaves a void in the life of her long time devoted husband Jimmy Seward; her daughter Tia Seward; two brothers Clifton Higgs and James Higgs; one half sister; one step daughter Tonya Samuels; one step son Roderick Seward; two godchildren Janea Brown and Asia Ray; her devoted aunt Lillian Jackson and two uncles Alvin Blick and Leroy Blick; her niece Shaunda Green and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ The pain of losing someone that you truly love can be overwhelming; I too know that pain. As you reflect on the precious memories you hold dear, may you also find comfort as I have, in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he by means of his son Jesus, will 'swallow up death forever'. (Isaiah 25:8) What a wonderful day that will be!###imported-begin###Kevin Jackson###imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Mrs. Seward's family and friends. The loss of one so dearly loved can result in deep sorrow that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy". But please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Acts 24:15 encourages us with the resurrection hope. Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
