

Vivian L Sivells

January 2, 1934 - January 14, 2015

Vivian Lenora (Mama) Sivells, age 81, passed away at her home in Baltimore, Maryland on Wednesday, January 14, 2015. The cause of her death was cancer.

Born January 2, 1934 in Currituck, North Carolina, to Bernice and George Ferrebee, she attended Baltimore City Public Schools. Her career consisted of working at several hospital facilities in laundry related jobs.

Mama will be especially remembered for her extraordinary memory, big heart, giving nature, great advice and soft temperament. She had the ability to calm and soothe with her kind words and had a way of making people see the good in others. Her guidance and love had no boundaries. She loved watching old westerns, playing the slot machines and rubbing scratch offs. She had a lucky touch.

She is survived by: her sister, Martha Hollman; her daughters, Rochell Pasco and Deborah Gaither; her son, Gregory Jackson; and nine grandchildren, Tonnette Manley-Elliott, Yolanda Mitchell, Shandel Harris, Antoinette Pigeon, Keysha Powell, Alan Jackson Jr, Tierwana Nesbitt, Vivian Miller-Hurel and Gregory Jackson Jr. Mama was preceded in death by her husband, Bruce Sivells; daughters, Bernice Miller and Evelyn Sherman; her sons, John Jackson Jr, Alan Jackson and Glen Reigns. She also leaves behind seventeen great-grandchildren, three great-great grandchildren and numerous loving relatives and friend

“ Aunt Vivian was a sweet, sweet lovable person who shared her love with people. I enjoyed talking to her growing up. She made me me better about family life that I could not change. I Thanked God that she raised my baby brother and kept him in the family. My condolences to my cousins who lost a sweet, sweet Dear Mother, Grandmother, Sister and relative.

Much Heavenly Love,

Shirley Raigns, Cousin
