

Vivian Thomas

April 23, 1943 - August 29, 2024

Vivian Mosby Thomas, 81 of Mechanicsville Va. quietly transitioned from labor to reward on August 29, 2024. She was born April 23, 1943, to her mother, the late Daisy Virginia Whitehead, she is preceded in death by her late husband of 38yrs, Willie G. Thomas Jr., her daughter Towanda Mosby, her son John Leroy Mosby Jr, her grandson Elliott Mosby, sister Ella Whitehead and her brother Carlton Whitehead.

Vivian received her formal education in Richmond Public Schools in Richmond, Virginia.

She accepted Christ at an early age, and was a longtime member of Sixth Mount Zion Baptist Church in Richmond Va.

She worked many years at Travelers Insurance Company and AT&T, she retired from Western Electric and enjoyed her retirement to its fullest, with her dearly devoted lifelong friends, Hazel McFadden (Devoted God Daughter), Vickie Anderson and Annette Walker.

Vivian loved her family and friends, and over the years she would often host family holiday gatherings, that would always make for a good time and lots of laughter and good cheer.

Vivian is survived by her daughter Bonita Mosby and her grandchildren Michael Mosby, Everett Mosby and Paris Mosby, she has five great grandchildren as well. She also leaves to cherish her memories, her brother Michael Whitehead (Sharon) and a host of nieces and nephew, cousins, other relatives and friends.
