

Vivian Lee Watts

February 20, 1947 - July 15, 2013

Vivian Lee Watts, affectionately known as Poochie, was born to the late Jack and Evelyn Westmoreland on February 20, 1947. She made her transition on July 15, 2013.

Poochie was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, after which she began working for National Can Company, which later became American National Can, for fifteen years. In 1971, Poochie married Curtis Watts , Sr. and from that union a son Sean Watts, was born. Joining that union were Poochie's two sons, Brian and Anthony Westmoreland, and five step-children: Curtis , Jr., Michelle, Eric, Roslyn and Craig.

Poochie was a woman of fashion. She was most known for her many wigs, styled in different sizes, shapes and colors. The best hairdo of all was her beautiful natural gray hair. She enjoyed dressing up and going out with her roadie, her sister Jackie. Thrift store shopping was one of her favorites past times, and she and her sister were the best at it.

Poochie was a caretaker to many, lending a hand whenever she could to those in need. She cared for her mother, Evelyn and Aunt, Mable, comforting them until the very end . Most recently, her caretaking nature prompted her to become a devoted foster parent to several children, one of which her son, Sean adopted. Sean adopted. Lamar, loved his Ma'Ma.

In 2010, Poochie joined Faith Community United Methodist Church and faithfully attended until her sickness prevented her from doing so. She was very instrumental in ensuring that her grandchild attended Sunday school.

Poochie leaves to cherish her memories, and celebrate her life: three sons, Brian Westmoreland Anthony Westmoreland and Sean Watts: five stepchildren: Curtis Watts, Jr., Michelle Watts, Eric Watts, Rosalyn Duncan (Donald), and Craig Watts (Michelle); four brothers, Willie Westmoreland, Marcel Westmoreland, Julio Westmoreland and Vincent Westmoreland who preceded her death: one sister, Jackie Westmoreland: several grand and great grandchildren: and a host of other relatives, family and friends.

“ I extend my condolences to the family of Vivian Watts. May you find comfort from the God of all comfort, who helps us cope with our grief. It can be so hard to face each day without our loved one; but, the love and support of family and friends can help ease your pain and sorrow. The Bible promises at Revelation 21:4 - "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be any more. The former things have passed away." Psalms 37:9,10,11,29 helps us appreciate that we will have an opportunity to see Ms. Watts again in the coming paradise on earth, under peaceful and righteous conditions. I hope that these scriptures can provide comfort for you and your family.
