

Wade W. Warfield

December 1, 1973 - March 15, 2017

On March 15, 2017, the angels of the Heavenly Host led Wade Wayne Warfield quietly and graciously to eternal rest in peace. Wade Wayne Warfield was born in Baltimore, MD on December 1, 1973 to Elmer Howard Warfield Jr. and Gloria Elizabeth Warfield.

Wade graduated from Baltimore Polytechnic Institute in 1991. Wade had a passion for learning especially in mathematics. He has achieved many scholastic scholarships. He was the first black student to achieve a full scholarship with Baltimore Gas and Electric Company and addition he also received a full Meyerhoff scholarship.

Wade continued his education at UMBC where he was a recipient of a full mechanical engineering degree; he graduated with Tau Beta Pi honors. He also received recognition in the Who'sWho Book due to his 4.5 GPA status in engineering.

He was a professor at University of College Park where he taught mathematical engineering. Wades' engineering career ended with C.R. Daniels, Inc. in Ellicott City, MD. He managed and trained entry level and all essential engineers.

Wade's love and devotion for family and friends was never compromised as the third child of four children. He would always make himself available when needed. He always enjoyed spending time with family and friends whether if it was playing cards, to watching movies, or simply telling stories and jokes, he always knew how to put a smile on everyone's face. He made numerous friends and colleagues wherever he went. Wade was a true friend and devoted family man. He leaves a void for those who knew him well especially those who loved him most.
