“ I don't know either of you or your family. Just someone who shares your pain, and has kept you in my prayers since day 1. I am your sister in Christ. May God strengthen you during this time. To Mom and Grandma-May God mold, hold, and comfort you. To Grandma, I can see my Grandmother through you, and how much you loved Walker. To Mom, I pray that God takes away your pain. My prayer is that you don't grieve hard for him.. For where he is now, he would not want to come back. Just think that one day, you will see your son again. He was a good looking young man. Let those be tears of joy. My prayer is that God takes away your pain. May justice be prevailed. Count out all negativity, and think positive now. God will take care of all that has been done. God is justice. God's rath is worst. Just leave all this in his hands. God bless and look to the hills from whence cometh your help. Remember that all your help comes from the LORD!!.
