

Wallace Lilly

December 8, 1945 - June 17, 2012

WALLACE LILLY, was born on July 9, 1943 in Wake County, NC to William Smith and Hazel Privette who both preceded him in death. He was called home to be with the Lord on June 16, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

Wallace moved to Baltimore City with his mom and family at an early age. He attended Baltimore City Public Schools. Wallace later returned to returned to North Carolina where he lived for several years and worked as an environmental service worker in the North Carolina School System. He loved his job and the people he worked with there. He was a dedicated worker.

Everyone who came in contact with Wallace loved and enjoyed his amusing tempo. He enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. Growing up Wallace and his twin Willis were inseparable. The two of them laughed at each others jokes even if they weren't funny. Watching the good old Westerns was his favorite past-time. Wallace was not a religious person but I believed he made peace with God during his transitioning period.

He leaves to mourn his children: Antonio and Wallace Booth and Velma Giles, ten grandchildren: Ryheen, Ariel, Ryshied, Wallace, Stacey, Angelina and Neveah Booth, Jamilla English and Glenn Giles; two great grandchildren, one sister; Vera Green, who faithfully took care of him until he departed, two brothers; Willis Lilly (twin) and Edward Privette, two sisters who preceded him in death Henry, Frederick, and Tryandros Privette (Big Mann), one sister in law; Sharon Privette, two uncles Winan and Walter Smith and two uncles that also preceded him death; Fred Lilly and Coleman Smith, one aunt Louis Lilly and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
