

Wallace Linwood Cole

September 5, 1910 - February 8, 2005

Wallace Cole was born to the late David and Mary Cole in Keysville, Virginia, September 5, 1910. He departed this life February 8, 2005. He received Jesus as his Lord and Savior at an early age. He was a member of St. Paul Baptist Church. Wallace received his education in the public schools of Keysville, Virginia. He retired from Bethlehem Steel with forty-three years of dedicated service. He married the late Massie Stratton Cole in 1939, out of that union five children were born. He leaves to mourn their loss: two daughters, Louise Simms and Estella Brewer; three sons, Otha, David and Larry Cole; three daughters-in-law, Marion, Mary and Niece Cole; one son-in-law, John Brewer; five grandchildren; three great grandchildren; Joyce Carter, Barbara Cole, other relatives and friends. He loved God, his family and friends. Those who knew Wallace loved his kind and gentle demeanor. The children in the neighborhood were treated to a day in Druid Hill Park along with his five children. No child was left behind. He loved baseball, boxing, and attended the sports often. He visited his children often at their homes.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
