“ I am so sorry to see this. We were so happy to see (Daddy Rabbit) we affectionately called him coming as children he was a good man and a great uncle. We didn't get to attend his service because I wasn't aware he passed but I just wanted to pay respect of the highest order to my uncle Wallace from the Crawley & Joyner family.

Tremaine Joyner - September 03, 2021 at 08:16 PM

I'm so sorry that I wasn't notified of Mr. Wallace's passing. Mr. Wallace was married to my aunt Emily and he always treated the children with love. He had a funny saying "if I ain't I'm near bout it". I love you and will miss you. R.I.P. Linda “ Pop Pop! I never forget when I took you to vote for President Obama and he won. You said a black man is President and I voted for him. Not once but twice and you lived to see it. In 97 years you done seen alot and done a lot. Now you can rest with grandma Ennie. RIP Champ.
