

Walter Garland Bigelow Jr.

October 14, 1942 - July 26, 2015

WALTER GARLAND BIGELOW JR. went home to Jehovah's Heavenly Kingdom on July 26, 2015. Walter (Junior) also affectionately known as "GG", was born to the late Walter Garland Bigelow Sr. and Lula Bigelow Lee on October 14, 1942 in Burlington, North Carolina.

The family moved to Baltimore, Maryland when Junior was eleven years old. As a young adult, Junior moved to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where he furthered his education. Junior enlisted in the United States Air Force in 1962. He fought in the Vietnam War. After his tour, he returned to Baltimore, Maryland where he did odd jobs. He was employed for the United States Postal Service and then at the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland.

Junior loved reading, going to the park and going to the Kingdom Hall.

On February 12, 2000, Junior and Leah Giles was united in a very happy marriage.

On July 10, 2004, Junior was baptized at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses. At the age of 72, he was called to glory to be united in the heavenly kingdom with his father, Walter Garland Bigelow Sr., his mother, Lula Bigelow-Lee, two brothers, Leon and Glenn Bigelow. His first wife, Rosa Bell Bigelow, also preceded him in death.

Junior leaves to mourn his loss: his loving and devoted wife, Leah Bigelow; his son, Anthony Bigelow; stepdaughter, Marlene Giles; his grandchildren, mother-in-law, Joyce Giles; two brothers, Wayne Davis and Lynn Bigelow; five sisters, Bernadette Smith, Georgia Hayes, Katie Burrell, Paulette Jeter and Manuelita Thornton; two sisters-in-law, Towanda Chesley and Scarlet Brown; three brothers-in-law, Carmen Hayes, Heyward Burrell Jr and Murphy Thornton; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
