

Walter Broadnax

April 18, 1939 - April 7, 2003

Walter Broadnax, Jr., son of the late Walter Broadnax and Mary Quickly Broadnax, was born April 18, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on Monday, April 7, 2003 at 11:40 a.m. at Good Samaritan Hospital, following a long illness. Walter, affectionately known to family and friends as "Moe," was educated in the Baltimore City School System. At the age of eighteen he enlisted in the United States Army and was honorably discharged in 1958. Upon discharge he became employed with Highway Supply, but found his niche when he became a truck driver with Tri-State, where he spent most of his 28 years as a truck driver. When he wasn't on the road, Moe could be found with members of his bike club riding his motorcycle. In 1969, he married the former Carolyn Nelson, and out of this union four children were born, William, Sharon, Warren and Tamla. Moe was a devoted family man, great friend and hard worker. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Carolyn; two sons, William Broadnax and Warren Broadnax; two daughters, Sharon Broadnax and Tamla Smith; five grandchildren, Shawntrise, Tiera, Samuel, Corey Jr. and Shaquille; two sisters, Elizabeth Wall and Bernice Broadnax; his mother-in-law, Thelma Chester; his son-in-law, Corey Smith; two sisters-in-law, JoAnn Lewis and Betty Terrell; two brothers-in-law, Robert Lewis and Jewell Terrell; five nephews, Anthony Lewis, Kevin Lewis, Michael Lewis, Marvin Lewis and Eric Terrell; three nieces, Ursula Lewis, Natalie Lewis and Jewel-Mansel Terrell, and a host of other relatives and friends.
