

Walter Corbett

March 24, 1907 - January 18, 2003

Walter Corbett was born on March 24, 1907 in Halifax, Virginia. He peacefully slept away in the early hours of January 18, 2003 after a short illness. He received his education in Virginia schools. At a young age, he left home to travel around the United States and decided to make Baltimore his home. He worked on the docks of Baltimore for many years. He was an avid reader of three newspapers a day and was always sharp on current events of the day, until his illness. He was fondly known as "Slim" and "Uncle Slim" to the numerous friends he made. He was a true friend to many, and a devoted father. He leaves to cherish his memory: one daughter, Barbara Corbett Curry (one son Horatio Corbett preceded him in death); a devoted son-in-law, Ralph Curry; close friends, Grady Riley and family of Oxford, N. C., Betty Wilson of New York, N. Y., the Trusty family and Pringle family of Baltimore, Md.; and many lifelong friends.
