God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired, and a cure was not to be.

So, He put his arms around you and whispered

“You have to Come with me”

With tearful eyes, we watched you and saw you pass away

Although we love you dearly, we could not make you stay.

Your golden heart stopped beating, your hard-working hands to rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best.

“ My heart and prayers extend to all those who have suffered the loss of someone to our enemy Called Death. I've asked myself many times will life ever get better for us, Not knowing that in GODS word the bible found in REVELATIONS, 21:4 God promises to wipe away all death and pain from all mankind. This is GODS promise to all of us and like so many others, I' am looking forward to that day. Meanwhile we can give a special thanks to the March family for trying to give us comfort during these hurtful situations.

“ I have so many memories. I just want to thank everyone for all the love and support. He was an exceptional man in my eyes. He was always on my side. He was a great father, grandfather and great grandfather. He was able to meet his great granddaughter “Stink” whom he referred to as his girl. He’d always ask “how’s my girl?” One time he called and asked about her and I had told him that she was on punishment. He asked what she did. So I told him she got suspended for fighting in school. He said “Tell her I said, I’m proud of her for defending herself”

He also met Kamryn his oldest granddaughter’s son and they really enjoyed each other’s company. They laughed and joked. He was just that type of guy that he was going to have a good time with his family. We love you daddy!

P.S. Your grandson is naming his first born after you. Little Joshua should be here in 2023

“ My fondest memory is of Stinky teaching me how to play cards when I was 10. When I was 11, I was winning and he caught me cheating. He exclaimed with much surprise, "How did you learn how to cheat? I never taught you that!"
He will be remembered with joy in my heart- Regina
