

Walter Ellerbe

December 25, 1943 - February 14, 2002

Walter Ellerbe, son of Juliamae Campbell and the late Walter Ellerbe, Sr., was born on December 25, 1941. He departed this life on Thursday, February 14, 2002 after a lengthy illness. He leaves a legacy of love, a rich heritage of good thoughts, kind words and many honorable deeds. He received his education in Scotland, North Carolina. He moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where he was employed at English America Taylor until they moved in 1969, then he became a faithful employee of Johns Hopkins University for twenty years. Walter, better known as Ellerbe, Mule and Country, had a number of friends. All the children up the hill called him Pop-Pop. He loved playing cards with buddies Herb, Joe (Rock-head Joe) Green, Marlene, Donald and T.J. He loved fishing and hunting. He loved when his cousin Wade would come to town from North Carolina every month to visit. They would hang out together. Two of his favorite hang out spots was Arthur's BarberShop and Joe's Cleaners. Ellerbe was a true friend and a devoted husband. He was united in holy matrimony to Paula Nelson on March 26, 1982. Out of that union was born Donta Ellerbe. In his passing, he leaves to mourn: his wife, Paula Ellerbe; mother, Juliamae Campbell; mother-in-law, Dorothy Nelson; his sons, Donta Ellerbe, Walter Ellerbe of N.C., and Jerry Ellerbe of N. C.; his daughters, Sylvia Maynor, Melissa Ellerbe and Christine Ellerbe, N.C. and Latonya Bushrod of Baltimore, Md.; stepdaughter, Yolanda Smith Williams of Baltimore; seventeen grandchildren, two step-grandchildren, one great-grandchild; four sisters, Fannie Armstrong, Annie Mae Campbell, Marlene Lee

Minnie Jackson and Barbara Berry; two brothers, Ray Elliott and Fernando Elliott; three sisters-in-law, four brothers-in-law, two daughters-in-law, four sons-in-law, seventeen nieces and nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.
