“ i extend my deep condolences at this difficult time. Losing a loved one in death is so hard to come to terms with, and it leaves a deep void in the family circle. This was not God"s purpose for us to suffer this way, and by sending his dear son Jesus to die as a ransom for us; he has made the way out from sickness and death for all mankind who exercise faith in that ransom, Psalm 68:20 gives us this comforting hopr. It says, "The true God is for us a God of saving acts, and to the Sovereing Lord belong the ways out from death." Yes the way out from death is the ressurection through our Lord Jesus Christ; which the bible indicates will soon come about. At that time John 5:28,29 tells us that all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus"s voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life." I pray that your family recieves much comfort, and the strength to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family. I could not imagine such a loss, so I ask that you please accept my wholehearted condolences, knowing that I surely could not fully understand how you feel. I would just like to leave you with a comforting scripture that gives us not only hope for the future, but also some relief in our time of mourning. John the 5th chapter, verses 28 and 29 says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus Christ) voice and come out." Yes, in the very near future we will have the wonderful opportunity to welcome our dead loved ones who have fallen asleep in death back to life, right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29) May the words found in the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy during your time of bereavement. Despite this difficult time, you can be comforted by the Christian hope of the resurrection. Yes, by means of Jesus' shed blood, we have the real hope of seeing our loved ones again. The Bible promises at Acts 24:15: "and I have hope toward God that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Revelation 21:4 also promises of a future time when "death will be no more". It's my sincere hope that these Scriptures can provide comfort.##imported-begin##A. Robinson##imported-end##
