“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter, verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God’s Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that “all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.” At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I send my sincere sympathy to the family of Walter. It's been many months since your loved one passed away, but I know how much you must miss him. Please be comforted by these scriptures found at Isaiah 25:8, and Rev 21:3,4 which says, "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces; and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth; for Jehovah himself has spoken it. Also Rev says; "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. May these scriptures uplift your spirits, and help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
